

Dress Code At A Glance

The uniform policy of Westlake Charter School was adopted as a means of enhancing positive interaction between students and eliminating issues surrounding attire. Uniforms are to be worn Monday through Thursday. On Fridays, blue jeans and a spirit shirt or a college-logo printed shirt can be worn. Each student will be provided with a spirit shirt at the beginning of the year. Uniform clothing must be kept clean and in good repair, free of rips and tears. Patches for holes and any reinforcement must be on the inside of the garment.
